AMPLISSIMO ATQVE OR NATISS. VIRO, ANTONIO FUGGERO, domino in Weissenhorn, Kirchsparg, Biber-bach &c. singulari studiosorum omnium Meccæ-nati & patrono, domino suo plurimum obseruando, Leonhartus Fuchsius medicus S. D.

ANNO abhinc tertio commentarios de historia stirpiū in scriptos edidi, adiectis earundem plus quàm quingentis, ijsq; maximis, & ad naturæ imitationem artificiosissimè expressis & effictis imaginibus. Ceterum cum eius operis propter suam molem ac magnitudinem, non nisi domi vsus esse possit, de ra-tione aliqua mihi cogitandum fuit, qua efficerem ut herbariæ rei studiosis ita consulerem, ut peregrinantes etiam ac deambulantes haberent, quibus cum natiuas herbas rure inuentas cōferrent.
Neque enim ulla via ad rectè cognoscendas stirpes expeditior, quàm illa natiuarū ad picturas diligens collatio. Quapropter vt hac etiam in parte studiosorū necessitati per nos succurreretur, minusculas has & in angustiore formam contractas picturas effingi curauimus, adiectis duntaxat latinis & germanicis, non quidem omnibus, sed solummodo vsitatissimis nomenclaturis, vt scilicet hac ratione libellus in exigui enchiridij angustiam contractus, commodius à deambulantibus circumferri posset, & peregrinationum comes adhibitus, quam minimam sarcinam, & impedimenti afferret. Studio itaque & de industria historias refecimus, ut minus ponderis haberet libellus, & ad circumferendum esset aptissimus. Neque sa-nè uideo quid opus erat historijs, ut quas quouis comodius domi, & inter priuatos parietes discere è commentarijs nostris possit. Et huius sanè libelli is tantum usus erit, ut ab ijs quos uestigandarum stir-pium studium tenet, circumferatur, & excurrentibus ad nemora & campos inseruiat. Atque hæc quidem prima & præcipua causa fuit, cur imagines istas in angustiorem formam contractas edere uoluerimus. Ut autem minutiores istam ima-ginum formam ederemus, non parum nos mouit quorundam huius temporis typographorum detestanda auaritia & impudentia, qui his nostris picturis insidias struere non cessant, & quacunque possunt ratione eas imitari, ac pictorum opera exprimere conantur. Homines certè omnium odio digni, ut qui se aliorum, qui rem herbariam pro uirili inuare, & ab interitu vindicare studet, conatibus strenuè opponant. Ut igitur istorum im-posto

postorum doli ac fraudes promptius agnosci possint, has minutiores picturas in publicum prodire volumus. Nam cum illi etiam in angustia contractis utantur picturis, facile furtivæ eorundem imagines cum nostris collatæ deprehendentur. Præterea diligens etiam nostrarum cum furtivis collatio hoc præstabit, ut omnes subinde intelligant quàm rudibus & crassis vsi sint cæteri lineamentis, quamq; ridiculi sint imitatores. Quare quisque hoc Horatianum in hos ipsos torquebit rectissimè:

O imitatores seruum pecus, ut mihi sæpe Bilem, sæpe iocum vestri mouere tumultus.

De nostris quidem picturis & imaginibus hoc reuera affirmare possumus, eas hac arte, diligentia, industria, ac sedulitate esse effictas & sculptas, ut reliquas quotquot hætenus viderim (omniū pace dixerim) facile superent. Putaret aliquis stanneis typis esse excusas, nisi constaret sculptoris nostri tantam esse industriam, ut ligno etiam tenuia hæc lineamenta affingere posset. Proinde speramus nos hac ratione impudentibus illis imitatoribus frenum iniecisse, ne subinde facile cum furtivis suis picturis ex insidijs prosilire ausint. Porro in nomenclaturis stirpium eam sum secutus ra-tionem, quæ in altero nostrorum de stirpium historia cōmentariorum tomo, quæ in manibus habeo, mihi est obseruata. Quocirca nemo miretur, si interdum secus atque in primo sit factum tomo, hîc me appellasse herbas comperiat. Ratione verò eius mutationis hîc exponere nihil attinet, facturi id ipsum in altero tomo, prout cuiusq; stirpis historia requireret. Tibi autem, vir ornatissime, hunc libellum peculiariter dedicare decreui, non modò quòd generis claritate opumq; amplitudine polleres, sed quòd singularem te disciplinarum omnium, & huius præsertim quæ stirpium inquirat formas & facultates, admiratorem atque patronum esse, de celebri prædicatione plurimorum optimorum & doctissimorum hominũ cognouerim. Hæc enim in te virtus eò maiore meretur prædicationem, quò hodie passim non hæc tantum, verum etiam aliæ omnes artes sunt contemptiores, apud eos etiam quorum maxime intererat easdem tueri, ornare, ac sustentare. Et facis quidem prudenter, quòd ijs potius quæ tibi perpetuam & immortalem famam ac gloriam conficere possunt delectaris, quàm nescio quibus stultis delicijs, & alijs momentaneis rebus. Neque dubito quin Deus opt. max. hunc in te alijsq; paucis amorē erga bonas artes & rem herbariam excitarit, vt sint qui disciplinarū cultores, & præ-sertim herbarū inquisitioni deditos, desertos pro-pēmodum ab omnibus, iuuent, foueant, & tueantur. Videmus quā omnes propēmodum ab hoc studio sint alieni medici, ad quos tamen stirpium cognitio maximē pertinet: vt metuendum esset ne prorsus hæc artis pars maximē necessaria, intercideret, nisi te aliosq; heroes diuinitus naēti essemus, qui sua munificentia & liberalitate, eos qui toti in hoc studium incumbunt, in officio retinerent. Perge igitur, vt cœpisti, omnis doctrinæ, & potissimum eius quæ stirpium cognitionem tradit, esse Mecœnas & patronus, facq; vt tua ope & auxilio hæc medicinæ pars, quæ ferē tota temporum iniuria, & medicorum incuria ac ne-gligentia, internicione, quod dici solet, perierat, iterum è tenebris in claram lucem emergat, & pristinum nanciscatur nitorem. Facies autem, vbi tuam liberalitatē, vt hætenus, herbariæ rei studiosi subinde etiam cumulatē senserint. Qua quidem in re non tantum eos qui hoc delectantur studio, sed & cæteros omnes mortales, ad quos inde haud vulgaris perueniet commoditas, plurimū iuuabis, tibiq; famam & gloriam nun-quam inter morituram parabis. Reliquum nunc est, vir eximie, ut pro tua singulari humanitate, & erga studiosos immenso favore, munusculum hoc meum, amoris & observantiae meae erga te certissimum testem, leto & hilari animo accipias, illudque tua autoritate amplissima, aduersus maligna quorundam iudicia tuearis. Quod si feceris, adeoque si hoc qualecunque munus meum tibi non ingratum fuisse intellexero, dabo omnino operam, ut occasione aliquando commodiore tuis virtutibus, quas maximas esse scio, digniora adornem.

Bene vale. Tubingae, X V. Calend.
