

Herbarium
Royal Garden
Kew
near London
23 June
1892

Dear Sir,

I have to thank you very much for your kind letter of 29th April which you addressed to Calcutta and which I have just received from there.

I am at present in this country on furrough and, for the next three months, my ad-dress will be at Kew.

I am very much obliged indeed for your munifi-
-cent offer to present your share copy of Visiani's memoirs to the library of the Botanical Garden at Calcutta. The only one of his works ~~at~~ at present in that library is his Flora Dalmatica. Copies of his other books would therefore be most gratefully received. These books might be sent for me to the care of the Director of the Royal Garden, Kew.

Dr Barclay's death deprived Indian my-cology of a very enthusiastic and pro-mising student. I am sorry to say that,
except Dr D. D.
Cunningham, there is no worker at Fungi now left

in India. And Dr.
Cunningham as you are aware works at the lower group only.

Believe me to be Yours very truly

John

Professor P. B. Saunders