

Herbarium, New
Dear Professor Saccardo,

19/3/94.

I am very sorry indeed to learn that anything I said in Grevillea displeased you, I did not say it in a vindictive spirit. No one values the Sylloge more than I do & I believe no one uses it more than I do or appreciates its great merits more.
What I intended to convey was that it was not a perfect book & stated my reasons. I mentioned the Sylloge because it is known all the world over. It is no use having a book that only very few people know.
Yours very sincerely, J. Massee.

UNION POSTALE UNIVERSELLE
POST CARD—GREAT BRITAIN & IRELAND
(GRANDE BRETAGNE ET IRLANDE)

THE ADDRESS ONLY TO BE WRITTEN ON THIS SIDE.

Professor Seccardo
Botanic Garden
Padua,

Italy.