Dear Sir,

Although there is a rich collection of portraits at Kew, there is no published list of them, that I can send you. If you, however, write to the Director, Royal Gardens, Kew, no doubt all information will be given you on the subject. I notice there is a frontispiece portrait of Rafinesque in R. B. & Ball's "Life Writings of Rafinesque," Kentucky (1895).

Yours sincerely,
Ernest S. Salmon.

I am sorry I can do no more for you.
