

Firenze, May 4, 1898.

My dear Prof. Saccardo:

I have been waiting to know exactly when I should be in Venice before writing to you in answer to your note. We leave for Venice tomorrow and I will make the excursion from there to Padua any day between the 6th and 9th inclusive if you will kindly send me word, ^{when it will be convenient for you to have me come} to Hotel de Rome et Pension Suisse, Venice, ~~Hotel~~ and shall hope that your grandparents may not interfere with my having the pleasure of seeing you. In haste sincerely yours

Roland Thaxter.
