Dear Prof. Saccardo -

I think you may be interested in the enclosed account of a Sabbati Herbarium we have here, which I am publishing in a forthcoming number of my journal of Botany. The vernacular names of the plants seem interesting.

In your most useful

'La Botanica in Italia' you seem to know little of J. M.
Ferro - You will find an account of a Herbarium
we have here in Journal of Botany, 1890 - p. 278.

With kind regards believe me Yours of truly,

James Britton
