Padua, Italy.

My dear Sir:

The Brooklyn Botanic Garden is endeavoring to secure a collection of photographs of the botanists of the world, and I would especially appreciate it if we may have a photograph of yourself to add to this collection. We shall be very glad, indeed, to reimburse you for any expense involved in securing and sending us the photograph and to honor any restrictions you care to place upon its publication or other use.

Incidentally, you may be interested to learn that we have just been able to secure from a private owner a set of the original imprint of your invaluable Sylloge.

With many thanks in advance for any courtesy you may be able to extend in the matter of the photograph, I am

Yours very sincerely,

C. Stuart Gager

Director.
