

Tokyo, 11th January,
1912.

Dear Prof. Dr. P. A. Saccardo,

I beg to send you a copy of "Ueber die Flecken- und Buntbambuse" which you asked me to send, in the last April. When I received your card at 8th May, 1911, I soon prepared it to send you.

But this morning, greatly to my astonishment, I found it in the bottom of one of the drawers of my table. I am very sorry that it slipped from my memory for a long time. I beg your pardon for my fail to answer your letter,

I am yours truly
S. Kawamura
