My dear Professor Saccardo:

I was very sorry to learn that Professor Farlow was unable to see you when he was in Venice and trust that you have not been seriously ill. I had asked him to perform a commission for me by obtaining from you if possible a few perithecia of Chaetomium calvescens, C. macrosporum, lignicola and helicotrichum which you have described. I am having the genus revised and should be very greatly indebted for any or all of these, and will see that a sufficient exchange in Chaetomia is sent you in return. I have also always wished to ask if you could let me have a small bit of the genus Thaxteria so that I may know what I look like under the microscope.

With warmest regards, believe me

Very sincerely yours,

Roland Thaxter
